Curriculum

Architect Urbanist, she is interested in the tools of participatory processes, such as urban tactics, technopolitics, pedagogical, artistic and activist practices to democratize the production of the city. Integrated Researcher at DINÂMIA'CET-Iscte, Centre for the Study of Socioeconomic Change and the Territory, working on the project Care(4)Housing - A care through design approach to address housing precarity in Portugal. PhD in Architecture of Contemporary Metropolitan Territories, Specialty in Digital Architecture at ISCTE - Instituto Universitário de Lisboa (2021), with the thesis "Co-production of technopolitical interfaces: civic hacking for local development in Lisbon". Master by the Project and City Program at the Faculty of Visual Arts at the Federal University of Goiás / Brazil (2018) with the dissertation "Taxonomy of Tactical Urbanism: a proposal for reading, understanding and articulation of emerging urban tactics". Postgraduate lato sensu in Sustainable Environmental Rehabilitation Architectural and Urbanistic by the University of Brasília (2014). Bachelor of Architecture and Urbanism from the State University of Goiás (2005). Co-founder of Sobreurbana, a collaborative urbanism studio, which works in the city of Goiânia/ Brazil since 2013, sharing urban tactics for community and participatory projects. She has experience in architectural projects of different types, with an emphasis on housing. For six years, she was an architect at Caixa Econômica Federal/ Brazil, where she worked in the monitoring of plans, projects and public works, with greater experience in technical assistance and social housing promoted by social movements. She taught the subjects of General History of Art and Object Design in the Architecture and Urbanism course at Faculdades Objetivo (2015). Currently, she is part of the collective of women architects A-GRUPA, based in Portugal and associated with EDA - Ensaios e Diálogos Associação, where she mediates participatory processes of community development. As current activist actions, she is part of the Coletivo Andorinha and the NGO Mulheres na Arquitetura.
