Curriculum

I am a Senior Lecturer with tenure in Political Science at Iscte-IUL, a researcher at CIES-Iscte, a delegate for Iscte-IUL at the Pioneer Alliance, and co-chair of the Council of Europe's Social Movements Research Network. Since 2020, I have co-coordinated the Politics and Citizenship research group (CIES-Iscte) and am currently director of the Observatory of Democracy and Political Representation. Between 2018 and 2022, I coordinated, as PI, the FCT-funded research project HOPES - HOusing PErspectives and Struggles. Futures of housing movements, policies, and dynamics in Lisbon and beyond (€230,000). My area of research is social movements, with a special interest in processes of political radicalization, the role of protest in political change, digital activism, gentrification, and movements for the right to housing and the city. I have published several articles in journals such as Housing Studies, Journal of Common Market Studies, Partecipazione e Conflitto, Current Sociology, Mobilization, Social Movement Studies, Journal of Contemporary Religion, West European Politics, Estudos Ibero-Americanos, Democratization, Cultures & Conflicts, Análise Social, Storia e Problemi Contemporanei, and Historein. My monography 'The Revolution before the Revolution' and the book I co-edited with Olivier Fillieule 'Social Movement Studies in Europe' were both published in 2016 by Berghahn. I have been teaching courses on social movements, democracy, citizenship, political culture and digital era.

Research Interests

political sociology, historical sociology, social movements, asuterity and anti-austerity politics, gentrification, political violence, policing protest, political change.
