Curriculum

Marta Sequeira holds a degree from the Faculty of Architecture at the Technical University of Lisbon (2001) and a PhD from the Technical School of Architecture of Barcelona (2008). She has taught at various institutions, including the University of Évora – where she served as Head of the Department of Architecture – and the Faculty of Architecture at the University of Lisbon. She has been invited to teach classes and workshops, deliver lectures, or participate in juries in cities such as A Coruña, Atlanta, Barcelona, Bogotá, Brighton, Coimbra, Covilhã, Darmstadt, Évora, Faro, Frankfurt, Girona, Granada, Guimarães, Lisbon, Madrid, Medellín, Pistoia, Porto, Quito, Rio de Janeiro, Seville, Valencia, Valladolid, Mendrisio, Monterrey, São Paulo, and Zurich.

Currently, she is an associate professor at ISCTE-IUL, where she serves as the Erasmus coordinator for the Department of Architecture and Urbanism, and at the Universidade Autónoma de Lisboa, where she founded and coordinates the PhD programme in Contemporary Architecture.

In the field of curation, she has organised exhibitions such as Carrilho da Graça: Lisboa (2015-2018), initially presented at the Belém Cultural Centre in Lisbon but later showcased internationally in cities as diverse as Bogotá, São Paulo, Barcelona, Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Madrid, Paris, Milan, and Mexico City; Flashback / Carrilho da Graça(2022), presented at the Casa da Arquitectura in Matosinhos; and Habitar Lisboa (2023-2024), presented at the Belém Cultural Centre in Lisbon. The catalogues accompanying these exhibitions have been recognised with awards such as an honourable mention from the International Committee of Architectural Critics (2017) and the Publications Award from the Ibero-American Biennial of Architecture (2024).

She is the author of numerous books and essays published in Portugal, Spain, Italy, the United Kingdom, Germany, Lithuania, Colombia, Brazil, Argentina, and the United States. Among them, Towards a Public Space (Routledge) stands out—a work based on research that was awarded the Prix de la Recherche Patiente 2016, the most prestigious international prize for Corbusian studies, granted annually by the Le Corbusier Foundation in Paris. Beyond these recognitions, her research has also been awarded the University Texts in Social Sciences and Humanities Award (2009), the ICAR-CORA Prize for the Best Doctoral Thesis (2011), and she was a finalist for the Fernando Távora Prize (2013-2014 and 2014-2015) as well as the FAD Prize for Thought and Criticism (2019). A publication she co-authored received the Publications Award at the XI Ibero-American Biennial of Architecture and Urbanism (2019), while another won the FAD Prize for Thought and Criticism (2018).

For her professional architectural practice, her work has been recognised with the AZ Award of Merit (2019), and she was a finalist for the FAD Prize (2018 and 2019) and the BigMat International Architecture Award (2019), as well as being shortlisted for the Dezeen Award (2019). Her projects have been presented at Open House Porto (2017) and in the Habitar Portugal (2013-2017) exhibition.

She has been a guest editor for special issues on Portuguese architecture for Casas Internacional and on Le Corbusier for the Journal of Architecture and Urbanism. She has also served as a member of the editorial board of the Journal of Architecture and Urbanism, as part of the peer review team for the International Journal of Architectural Heritage, and as Portugal correspondent for DC Papers. Currently, she is on the editorial boards of Varia (journal of the Association of Historians of Architecture and Urbanism), Rita. Revista Indexada de Textos Académicos, Estudo Prévio, LC. Revue de recherches sur Le Corbusier, Dearq – Journal of Architecture, and Proyecto, Progreso, Arquitectura.
